Mata Amritanandamayi Math sets up medical camps

Express News Service

First Published : 12 Oct 2009 03:40:00 AM IST

HYDERABAD: Lending a helping hand to the flood victims in Krunool district, Mata Amritanandamayi Math has set up medical camps in several villages and is extending medical services to flood victims. About 500 people are being treated at these medical camps every day. The Math is also supplying food and clothing to people affected by the nature's fury.

According to the Match in-charge Raghunath, a mobile medical clinic with a team of 12 doctors and medical staff was sent to render medical services in the flood-affected areas.

The mobile unit is equipped with latest technologies like telemedicine, video conference, satellite technology and an intensive care unit to deal with emergency cases. The mobile unit is connected to the superspeciality hospital at Cochin in Kerala to provide telemedical services to the doctors and staff of the unit who are providing medical assistance to flood victims.
