Amritolsavam at Kaimanam ashram on April 23

By Express News Service - THIRUVANANTHAPURAM | 21st April 2013 10:34 AM

Mata Amritanandamayi will take part in the Amritolsavam at Kaimanam Brahmasthanam temple here on April 23 and 24.

Addressing a news conference here on Saturday, Sivamritha Chaitanya of Kaimanam Ashram said that Mata, who would be reaching here from Kanyakumari on April 22, would distribute 'prasadam' to the devotees in the evening.

On 23rd morning, head of Travancore royal family Uthradom Thirunal Marthandavarma will present the Viswaratna award of Hindu Parliament to Mata Amritanandamayi.

Speaker G Karthikeyan, Minister V S Sivakumar, K Muralidharan MLA, O Rajagopal, Vellappalli Natesan, Swamy Lokahithananda (Sree Ramakrishnashram) and K Raman Pillai will participate.

Minister K P Mohanan will distribute seeds and fertilisers to 500 persons in the presence of Mata to encourage bio farming in connection with 'Pathamudayam.' 'Amritadarshnam 2013' souvenir will be released at the function.

Mata will leave for Amrithapuri on April 25.

Around one lakh people are expected to participate in the Amritolsavam.

Facilities for free food and first aid have been arranged for the devotees.
