Call for union of minds

Spiritual meet: Mata Amritanandamayi blesses a devotee at the Brahmathanam at Mananthavadi on Thursday. –

MANANTHAVADI: Mata Amritanandamayi has said globalisation cannot attain its proclaimed ends without amalgamating the minds of the people.

The Mata was addressing a gathering of devotees in connection with 10th Brahmathana Mahotsavam at the Amritanandamayi Math near here on Thursday.

She said the people think that globalisation would turn the world into a better place for living as it would improve their standard of living, eliminate poverty and improve the educational and health care facilities. But in reality, globalisation had worsened their condition considerably, the Mata said.

She said globalisation might be able to turn the whole world into a small village as a concept, but nobody was trying to unite the minds of the members of this village. Only through this great union that the real progress could be achieved.

Protect nature

Man should love the nature as he loves his mother and all the human beings are obliged to protect the nature for the posterity, she added.

The Mata and her disciples were received with Poornakumbham on Wednesday night at the Math.

As part of the Mahotsavam, Sree Lalitha Sahasranama Archana, Amrita Yoga Dhyanam and Bhakthigana Sudha were held under the patronage of the Mata. Rahudosha Nivarana Puja, Sanidosha Nivarana Puja, Udayasthamana Puja and Maha Ganapathi Homam would be held at the Math on Friday, Akshayamrutha Chaithanya, chief of the Math, said.

The Mahotsavam would conclude on Friday and the Mata would begin her South Indian journey from here on Saturday, he added.
