

FULLY LOADED CAR. ALL NEW PRICE.

OLD PRICE ₹ 5.95 Lakh* NEW PRICE ₹ 5.66 Lakh*

Next-Gen Ford Figo Titanium

Go Further

TEST DRIVE NOW

Ask Prabhu
 Editorial Director
Your tomorrow depends on the question you ask today
 Column: Power and Politics

Home > Cities > Kochi

A campaign to celebrate old age

By Express News Service | Published: 12th September 2016 06:54 AM
 Last Updated: 12th September 2016 06:54 AM

Email 0

Singer and actor Ranjini Jose officially launching the R4Respect campaign at Sainik Ashram at Kakkanad

KOCHI: R4Respect, an initiative by the final year journalism students of Amrita School of Arts and Sciences, was launched at the Sainik Ashram, Kakkanad, on Friday by celebrating Onam with the inmates. The campaign, with the motto 'celebrating old age,' is an initiative by a group of 18 youngsters who have set out to bring a change in society. Singer and actor Ranjini Jose officially launched the campaign. Amrita School of Arts and Science, Kochi, director U Krishnakumar and others participated. T K Bhaskaran, who fought in the World War-II, was honoured. Gifts were distributed by the guests and students.

Looking for a life partner? Register FREE on BharatMatrimony.

Movies

Sadhuram 2 review: This equivalent of Saw is a treat for thriller lovers

Travel

Romancing the Bali stones

Food

Take Zucchini On A European Adventure With These 3 Recipes

Books

Engineer's self-published novel tops Amazon charts

MORE NEWS

HYDERABAD

First year Arts student from Hyderabad Central University commits suicide

NATION

Congress dubs new Arunachal govt illegitimate child of BJP

WORLD

Obama hands $1.2 million to family of Italian killed in drone strike

WORLD

Putin questions why 'healthy athletes are taking drugs'

SPORT

Davis Cup: Valiant Ramkumar wins Indian hearts

SPORT

Show me you have the desire, says Mourinho

OPINION

Role of Opium in 1830s' China

OPINION

What if the world was stuck with only print journalism?