Amrita Math donates one million USD for Japan tsunami relief

PTI | 09:09 PM, Sep 17, 2011

Thiruvananthapuram, Sept 17(PTI): Kerala-based Mata Amritanandamayi Math has donated USD one million for Japan Tsunami Relief and Rehabilitation Work. The donation was provided through the Math international charity wing Embracing the World (ETW), founded by Mata Amritanandamayi, popularly known as "Amma" (Mother). The donation was presented on Friday to Yoshihiro Murai, Governor of Miyagi Prefecture in Japan, by Swamy Purnamitrananda and Br Shantamitra Chaitanya in Tokyo yesterday, an Amrita Math release said today. This money would be used for Miyagi children's education fund, which is part of Japan Tsunami relief and rehabilitation work. ETW's representatives pledged their ongoing commitment to the reconstruction work in the region. Sanjay Panda, Deputy Chief of Mission at Indian Embassy in Tokyo, was also present on the occasion. Governor Murai responded by saying "We are deeply grateful for your support. Embracing the World is a world-renowned NGO. Thus I hope that you will use your international network to keep people all over the world informed of the disaster conditions here, so they can remember in the future." Since 1990, Amma has been visiting Japan every year to conduct programs in cities such as Tokyo, Kobe, Osaka, and Sapporo.
