Ropar, June 24

The IIT-Ropar has secured 47th rank in Times Young University Rankings 2020 announced in London today. The institute, which started twelve years ago in 2008, has topped in the rankings nationally.

IIT-Indore has bagged second spot nationally and 64th spot globally.

Similarly, IISER, Pune, and IIT, Gandhinagar, ranked between 101 and 150, while Amrita Vishwa Vidyapeetham, IIT-Bhubaneshwar, IIT-Guwahati and IIT-Hyderabad were placed between 151 and 200.

The ranking adjudges the universities under five broad parameters, namely, teaching, research, international outlook and industrial output.

IIT-Ropar director Prof Sarit K Das said the consistent performance in various rankings was testament to the institute's continued success at fostering a collaborative and supportive research culture. — TNS
