

UNESCO's gender equality chair for Amrita University

CHENNAI: The United Nations has officially made Amrita University India's first-ever UNESCO Chair on gender equality and women's empowerment. The event in Paris was witnessed by over 8,000 people who were attending a spiritual programme of Amrita Univ's Chancellor, Sri Mata Amritanandamayi Devi. Guests included Ruchira Kamboj, Ambassador and Permanent Representative of India to UNESCO and Dr Peter Wells, Chief of Higher Education Section, UNESCO.